Managing the Impact on Business Value Chain Stakeholders Business Value Chain

"Providing Structure of your Imagination", TMT is a comprehensive steel service provider that meets every possible expectation of all stakeholders by providing counsel and advice, helping with product sourcing and new services, as well as creating a wide range of options to add value to the business cooperation process under an integrated management system that serves all needs. This consists of 5 main activities which are linked together following the overall business operation context. They are as follows:

Primary Activities Logistics Raw Materials Production/ Quality Distribution and Assurance Service Sourcing Processing · Raw materials • Efficient production • Standardized · Communicate and · Warehouse/ for production/ and reduced testing and quality provide accurate and distribution center environmental complete information that is convenient processing control · Quality control impact Consulting about the use of for transportation, of raw materials Processing Department products and services supporting the system · Developing with modern regarding product · Department that receives with a high-speed relationships technology standards feedback or suggestions communication with · Integrate regarding products and network connecting manufacturers automatic system services modern information development with · Pricing appropriately systems work process and and fairly • Transportation/delivery production of quality products and services on time · Inventory management Support Activities

The Company established 5 aspects of business operation principles to manage risk appropriately and comply with good governance principles and the business code of conduct to ensure that the Company's business processes deliver sustainable value to all stakeholders. These include:

Infrastructure Development

Employee Potential Development

Technology Development