Monitoring the Compliance of Policies and Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Company placed an emphasis on good corporate governance by establishing relevant policies in the good corporate governance principles and the code of business conduct of the Company as well as promoting the actual practice in order to create confidence in all stakeholder groups.

In 2022, the Company took the following steps to ensure the compliance of the good corporate governance principles:

Prevention of Conflicts of Interest

The Board of Directors, in collaboration with the Audit Committee, carefully supervised any transactions that may have had conflicts of interest in order to verify the reasonableness and necessity of the transactions. The Board of Directors ensured that the Company disclosed information related to transactions that may have conflicts of interest for stakeholders and related agencies after such transactions were approved.

In 2022, the Company's directors, executives and related parties were required to report their stakes to the Company through the Company Secretary by presenting a stakes report to the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors to consider the transactions that may have conflicts of interest. Directors and executives who have a conflict of interest were not permitted to attend the meeting and vote.

However, there were no actions that violated the conflict of interest policy. The details are disclosed in the section "Connected Transactions".

Insider Trading Protection

The Board of Directors is aware of the importance of protection against insider trading for personal gain. The Company established securities trading policies for directors, executives and employees. The details are disclosed on the website at [www.tmtsteel.co.th.] Directors, executives and the Company's designated persons must comply with the prohibition of insider trading as defined by the Securities and Exchange Act. The Company's directors and executives are required to submit a securities holding report and a report of changes in securities holdings to the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") as required by law. The Company requires directors, executives, and the Company's assigned persons (related parties who know or possess insider information) to sign acknowledgment and obligation to report the securities holding and changes in securities holdings of themselves, their spouses, and their minor children. This must be submitted to the Company Secretary within the timeframe specified from the date of purchase, sale, transfer, or acceptance of the transfer of securities or futures contracts.

In addition, the Company set a blackout period by prohibiting directors, executives and the Company's designated persons from trading the Company's securities during the following periods:

(1) 30 days prior to the disclosure of the quarterly and annual financial statements and 1 business day after the quarterly and annual financial statements have been disclosed to the Stock Exchange of Thailand.

(2) 14 days prior to the disclosure of the Board of Directors' resolutions to approve important events that affect the price or value of securities and 1 business day after the resolutions have been disclosed to the Stock Exchange of Thailand.

In addition, the Company set a quiet period to not release the Company's internal information to any other person for 14 days prior to the disclosure of the quarterly and annual financial statements. This included the resolution of the Board of Directors to approve important events that affect the price or value of securities to the Stock Exchange of Thailand.

However, if directors, executives and employees of the Company use any of the Company's internal information for personal gain and cause damage to the Company, the Company will execute disciplinary action, which may include dismissal or being charged with a criminal offense or civil offense under the Securities and Exchange Act B.E. 2535 and/or relevant notifications of government agencies. In 2022, the Company performed the following actions:

- Notified the blackout period via the Company's email to directors, executives, and individuals listed by the Company 30 days prior to the disclosure of the quarterly and annual financial statements and 1 business day after the disclosure.

- Reported the securities holdings of the Board of Directors, executives, and related persons who acknowledge or possess the internal information to the Company Secretary on a quarterly basis.

- However, there were no directors, executives or employees who had access to inside information that violated the securities trading policy of directors, executives and employees of the Company.
